Privacy notice

San Carlos Property Management

This notice concerns this website and inquiries made through its contact details.

Information you provide

When you contact us by email or phone, you may provide your name, contact details, property information, and other information you choose to share. Please avoid sending sensitive information, such as Social Security numbers or financial account details, in an initial inquiry.

Website information

Cloudflare provides website hosting, delivery, and security services. When you visit, Cloudflare may process technical information such as your IP address, browser or device information, and information about the request.

Use and sharing

Information in an inquiry may be used to respond to you and discuss or provide requested services. Information may be shared when needed to respond or provide services, including with service providers. Google Workspace provides business email services, and Cloudflare provides website services.

Practices under review

Additional uses and recipients, retention, security, cookies and tracking, responses to browser Do Not Track signals, and how changes to this notice will be communicated are still being reviewed.

Questions and requests

To ask about information you have provided or request a correction, contact us using the email or phone number listed on this website. Applicable law may provide additional rights.
